Dear Jerry:

I deeply regret causing so much confusion among you brethren there. I had no intentions of coming until I had talked to Brother Ragland again at the Harding Workshop.

Unfortunately, I see no way I can get over to Jackson on Friday evening without losing almost a full day in the office here. This is what I cannot do at this point with my schedule. I can, however, be over there for all day Saturday, Saturday evening, and all day Sunday. On Saturday, we could possibly have a youth gathering from all over the area as well as a regular service for all of the members on Saturday evening, and then whatever services you desired on Sunday.

The best dates I have for this are Saturday, February 24-25, 1968. I can fully understand if the elders would rather get someone who can give them a Friday night. Unfortunately, I cannot do it at this time. If these dates are acceptable or if you have counter dates to offer, I will look forward to hearing from you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

I don't wish to be persistent but Brother Ragland tells me that there is still a possibility of your working us into your schedule for 1968. If you can give us a three-day weekend (Friday, Saturday, Sunday) anytime in February or March, 1968, we can work it into our schedule. The only weekend that is definitely out is the weekend of March 15-17. Any other weekend will be fine although preferably, the last of February and the first half of March would be better.

We will appreciate any effort you can make that will allow you to be with us. The meeting will be designed specifically for motivation and involvement of all our members. I will send you more details of our plans if you are able to come.

Sincerely,
